

ONE WORLD OBSERVATORY
SEE FOREVER

Sat. April 13, 2019

Begin your day at the new One World Observatory! Positioned on top of the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere, on levels 100, 101, and 102 of the 1,776 foot tall One World Trade Center building, One World Observatory™ provides unique, panoramic views of New York City, its most iconic sites, and surrounding waters. Come and experience 3 levels of innovation & inspiration... Start at One & see Forever!!!

Afterwards you will make your way over the 9/11 Memorial Museum, honoring & remembering the lives of those who were lost. Located beneath the Memorial plaza, visitors enter the Memorial Museum through a pavilion where two steel "tridents"—remnants of the North Tower's façade—stand in the building's atrium. The Museum offers displays of artifacts from the WTC and 9/11 attacks, interactive exhibitions, contemplative areas and programs that convey individual and collective stories relating the experiences of survivors, responders, area residents and eyewitnesses.
